STIPULATION

73 Cr. 751 (C.E.S.)

IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED AND AGREED, by and between the United States of America, by Paul J. Curran, United States Attorney for the Southern District of New York, James E. Nesland, Assistant United States Attorney, of Counsel, and the defendant, by Robert Kasanof, Legal Aid Society, Larry S. Greenberg, of Counsel, that defendant, having made a motion to dismiss, pursuant to Rule 12(b), Fed. R. Crim. P., claiming lack of valid jurisdiction over his person, which motion was denied by the Honorable Charles E. Stewart, Jr., United States District Judge, after an evidentiary hearing on November 21, 1974, hereby enters a plea of guilty to Indictment 73 Cr. 751, insofar as it charges defendant with violating Title 21, United States Code, Section 846, specifically preserving for defendant all right of appeal, secured by Rules 3 and 4, Fed. R. App. Proc. of the decision of Judge Stewart denying said motion and further reserving to defendant, upon consent of the United States of America, under Rule 32(d), Fed. R. Crim. P., the right to withdraw the plea of guilty entered herein, should

JOSE KENNETH PENARANDA

Would you tell the court what occurred to you on May 4, 1974?

A Yes. The 4th of May of the present year, around 5 o'clock in the afternoon I was at the house of my mother. At that time there arrived two young fellows.

Those fellows said that they needed me because there had been a man who had taken out a false check in my name and they asked me that I identify that man.

And then I asked them that they wait for a moment so that I could finish doing what I was doing at my mother's house. Then I said to my mother that I would be right back.

I went out with the two fellows, I invited them to my apartment and then I said to them that it seems strange to me that on Saturday, which is not a working day, there should be this problem. And then they changed and they said, no, Mr. Penaranda, it has to do with the fact that your son is under arrest. And then I said to them, where, and they said that he was in a section called San Pedro; that's a police section.

And then we went with those fellows and on arriving at that police section, they asked me to wait for a moment.

After a few minutes, more persons came in; there were about eight persons at that time. Among those there was one who asked me to get out of my car and Y said to him "Why?"

Then he said to me that I was under arrest and I said to him "Why?" And he should identify himself, who was he.

And then he, in a violent manner, took the keys out of my car and with another man who was stronger, they took me out of the car and they put me in the back.

It was like that that they took me to another section, which is in the center of the city. There I waited for about five minutes. After those five minutes, this man came back and he took me out of my own car with the same eight people and he asked me to sit in the part in back and then he asked me whether my glasses were made to order and I said yes and then he said that he was going to try them.

He took off my glasses and passed them to somebody in front and upon doing that, somebody put on some dark glasses, motorcycle glasses, and then he put a blanket on me, covering me with a blanket and a raincoat on top of the blanket and they made me get down on the floor of the car.

I felt that my car was going downhill and uphill and it was going in various different directions and then, according to what I heard, I felt that we were already outside of the city. More or less after about half an hour's driving they changed me at a stop to a Jeep, tied up like that, like that, et cetera. Then we arrived at a certain place.

They made me get down from the seat and upon getting down from the Jeep, since I was all tied up and masked with the blanket that way, they took all of the things that I had out of my pockets, a billfold, a watch, ring, even a handker chief, everything, everything.

And, with the belt that I had in my pants they took that out and they tied my hands in back of me and they put me in a room. In the room I asked "Where am I and why am I here?" By way of answer, I received a blow in the stomach and then I said to them, "Youare thieves." And then they gave me some other blows. On the fifth or sixth blow I fell down faint. I lost consciousness completely.

I got up, I woke up -- it would have been about

3 or 4 o'clock in the morning -- out of pain and I yelled and I asked for help but nobody paid any attention. This was until Sunday at night and at night they returned again.

They opened the room and they asked me how had

I slept. And I said to them "Very well by virtue of the blows that you gave me."

And I asked them that they take off the mask that I had on because I felt that my eyes were swelling up and then they took the mask up a little bit on my forehead and then I asked them that they loosen my belt a little bit because my arms were numb and I couldn't move them and I was in great pain.

"Very well." He said that for a certain time, they would be able to loosen my belt. Then I asked them for a little bit of water. "Don't worry, we are going to bring you food and water later on."

. And then I asked them who were they and why did they have me there.

"Don't ask so many questions because if you do you are going to be beaten again."

Then I had to keep silent.

Then they put the mask back on and tightened my belt again with my hands behind my back and they left and I asked them whether they would leave a blanket with me because I felt that it was very cold. Then they said "Very well." A few minutes passed and somebody gave me a blanket.

On receiving the blanker I received some new blows as well. "This is for the food, this is for the water and this is so that you can sleep well."

I woke up in pain and I tried to find out where

I was but nobody would answer me, nobody would say anything to me.

MR. GREENBERG: Excuse me, your Honor. May we just interrupt this for a second? We submitted to the court some documents which had been translated from Spanish into English. Mrs. Seltzer, the interpreter who had translated this, is here. I wonder if we could just swear her in for the purpose of putting on the record the fact that she is a court interpreter and that she translated the documents from Spanish into English, the documents which were submitted to the court.

(Norma Seltzer sworn and stated that she faithfully and accurately interpreted the documents as indicated.)
BY MR. GREENBERG:

- Q Would you continue?
- A Very well.

I continued in that way until Monday. Monday night they returned to visit me. Then they brought me some metal handcuffs like the ones that are used up here and then they began to take off the mask, this mask that I had on but on the condition that I not approach for any reason the door.

I asked about my mother, my wife and my son and they said that I shouldn't worry because everything would be taken care of. This was until Thursday.

Then, on Thursday, they came at night and the same man entered. By the light of the doorway I could see him. He was well dressed and perfumed. I was impressed by the fact that he was dressed in black because I thought that something had happened to my mother and then, in desperation, I grabbed him by his jacket and I asked him "What

5 has happened to my mother?"

And then the five men who were outside grabbed me again and started to beat me and he said to them, "Leave him alone, don't touch him any more."

"Don't worry, your mother is all right, your wife is all right and also your son. Your problem is also resolved and now you are going home."

"Very well."

And then they took me out like that; it was at night.

Yes. They put the mask on me again for my eyes, and the blanket. We drove around again in the Jeep for more or less 20 minutes or half an hour. They stopped at one of those places; they made me get out of the Jeep and they put me in another vehicle and when that vehicle started up it wasn't on a gravel road or a dirt road but on a paved road.

noticed that I was hearing airplane noises. Once the vehicle stopped. They took the blanket and the face mask off of me and then I was able to see the same agent who arrested me, a Bolivian man in the cab of the car and an American at his right-hand side and then I said to them could they give me a cigarette and then they said to me, "We won't give you anything because we are of a very hard heart, in addition to which, you stink" and I then said to them "How could I be otherwise since I have been six days and five nights without water and in punishment?"

And then I kept silent and I observed some lights which were lit for a landing and it struck me that all around me there were men with machine guns and then I thought and I said to myself, "Surely they must think I am Al Capone."

Then, the American agent said that I could go to the bathroom and I said that I had no need to but he made me get down and do what he asked me to do.

Returning to the vehicle, a Braniff plane arrived. My desperation was great, thinking about my mother, my wife and my son and then I noticed that the Bolivian agent was going through the process of getting the ticket and I noticed that there was some problem. Those problems taken care of, the vehicle approached the ramp of the airplanc. Then they took me out and they put me aboard the plane and I asked the people that they let me see for the last time my country and he said to me, "What are you going to see? You don't have any glasses on" and I said to him that they stole even them.

I entered the Braniff plane in first class and A When I was already here in New York.

Q Who obtained the ticket for you for the flight to New York?

A I think it must have been the Bolivian agent because I was in the vehicle in the custody of the American agent.

Q When you flew from La Paz to Lima to New York who accompanied you?

A A Bolivian agent accompanied me and an American agent.

Q When you arrived in New York were you given to two other agents?

A In arrival in New York I encountered two more agents.

Q While in Bolivia, did you ever see an order with your name on it, any government papers with your name on it?

A Nothing, absolutely.

Q Did you ever go before a court in Bolivia?

A No court, no tribunal.

Q Did the police officers or whoever arrested you in Bolivia ever identify themselves to you?

A They didn't want to. I asked them to because the law is that, that they should say who is arresting.

Q Now, Mr. Penaranda, did they wear uniforms?

CROSS EXAMINATION

BY MR. NESLAND:

Q The arresting officer at your house you recognized at the time you went to the airport or at your mother's house, that is?

A No. The ones who came to my house were two young fellows. They were the ones who deceived me.

Q The one that you recognized when you were going to the airport?

A The Bolivian agent.

Q Which one was he? The one that came on the plane with you?
